

PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT MANUAL

IN TERMS OF SECTION 52 OF THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT
ACT 2 OF 2000

1. INTRODUCTION

Section 32 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, No 108 of 1996 ("the Constitution") provides:

- (1) Everyone has the right to access to –
  - a. Any information held by the state; and
  - b. Any information that is held by another person that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- (2) National legislation must be enacted to give effect to this right, and may provide for reasonable measures to alleviate the administrative and financial burden on the State.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 ("the Act") was enacted on 3 February 2002 to give effect to section 32 of the Constitution, that is giving effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

Where a request is made in terms of this Act, the private or public body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information must not be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to such request.

2. WHO MAY REQUEST INFORMATION IN TERMS OF THE ACT

Any person, who requires information for the exercise or protection of any rights, may request information from a private body. Section 50 of the Act states that;

- (1) A requester must be given access to any record of a private body if –
  - a. That record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
  - b. That person complies with the procedural requirements in this Act relating to a request for access to that record; and
  - c. Access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

3. PROCEDURES FOR OBTAINING ACCESS

3.2 Prescribed Access From

In terms of section 53, a request for access to a record of Bridge Shipping (Pty) Ltd must be made in the prescribed form to Bridge Shipping (Pty) Ltd at the address, fax number or electronic mail address given above.

If the request is made on behalf of a person, the submission of proof of the capacity in which the requestor makes the request, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer is required.

For a specimen of the request form, see Annexure A to this Manual. The prescribed time periods will not commence until such time as all pertinent information has been provided to Bridge Shipping (Pty) Ltd by the requestor.

3.3 Prescribed fees

Payment of fees is regulated in terms of section 54 of the Act. The Regulations to the Act provide for two types of fees:

- Request fee: this is a non-refundable administration fee paid by all requestors with the exclusion of personal requestors. It is to be paid before the request is considered.
- Access fee: this is paid by requestors only when access is granted. This fee is intended to reimburse the private body for the costs involved in searching for a record and preparing it for delivery to the requestor.

Bridge Shipping (Pty) Ltd may withhold a record until the request fee and deposit (if applicable) have been paid. A schedule of the prescribed fees is attached as Annexure B to the Manual.

3.3.1 Requestor other than a Personal Requestor

The Information Officer must give written notice to a requestor other than a Personal Requestor of the request fee and amount to be paid before the request may be processed further.

If, in the Information Officer's opinion, the search for a record, or preparation of the record for disclosure may require more than the prescribed hours, the Information Officer may require the requestor to pay a deposit, not being more than one third of the access fee that would be payable if the request is granted. If the request is declined, the deposit must be repaid to the requestor.

The notice given by the Information Officer must advise the requestor that s/he has a right to apply to court against payment of the requisite fee or deposit and also advise of the procedure of the application.

3.3.2 Personal Requestor

A personal requestor is described in terms of the Act as a requestor seeking access to a record containing information about the requestor.

A personal requestor is not liable to pay a request fee, however is liable for payment of access fees in the event of a request being granted, but may not be required to pay a deposit before the granting of a record.

The requestor may request access to the following types of documents:

- 5.1 Personnel Records
- 5.2 Customer-related Records
- 5.3 Private body records
- 5.4 The requestor may also request information which may be available under other legislation.

The Information Officer will take into consideration section 8 of the Manual and decide whether or not access to any of the information stated above should be given to the requestor.

6. DECISION MAKING PROCESS

- 6.1 The Information Officer will take all reasonable steps to find a record that has been requested;
- 6.2 The Information Officer will respond within 30 days, or if need be, within 60 days of receipt of a duly completed request form.
- 6.3 The Information Officer will advise whether a request has been approved or declined.

7. THIRD PARTIES

If the request is for a record pertaining to a third party, the Information Officer will need to communicate with the third party first before responding.

8. GROUND FOR REFUSAL OF A REQUEST

The Information Officer may, in certain circumstances, not be able to meet with a request for information. If this is the case, the Information Officer will advise the requestor in writing of the refusal and the reasons therefore.

9. RIGHTS OF APPEAL

A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to grant access to any information may, within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to court for relief. Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to court for relief.
